

8400 Rate Chart Label Update

Dear Valued Neopost Customer,

Effective May 14, 2007, the United States Postal Service will be changing their mailing rates. Enclosed with this letter you will find your updated rate chart label which will provide you with the latest supported USPS rates.

Please do not install your 2007 rate chart label until May 14th. Installing your new rate label is a simple process that should take less than one minute. Before installing the new label, please review the enclosed installation instructions (steps 1-4).

The new "First Class" rates - Letter, Flat and Parcel are displayed on the label. You will need to confirm the mail shape meets the requirements for the new "First Class" rates. For more information on Shape-Based pricing, the USPS 2007 rates and the impact on your scale, please check the Neopost web site.

Should you have any administrative or technical questions concerning this 2007 Rate Change you can contact Neopost as described below.

8400 Scale – Rate Chart Label Installation Procedure: Rev USPS07

Step	Action / Comments
1	The 8400 scale does not calculate rates but uses a simple Rate-Chart affixed to the scale for determining Postal rates.
2	Remove the new Rate Chart label from the Neopost shipment that arrived with this letter.
3	Remove the plastic backing from the Rate Chart label.
4	Adhere the new Rate Chart to the front of the Scale, placing it over the older Rate Chart.
